MORE MONEY FOR AGENTS

Mr. J. H. Lowe wrote us in December, 1938, "I can no longer sell The Chicago Defender profitably. My customers are increasing weekly, but because of extra work required the profit margin is not large enough to allow me to make any money. I will send you the money I owe you, but don't send any more papers. I also have some suggestions to make regarding reader interest.

Sincerely,

J. H. Lowe"

January 1 we answered the challenge of interest and profit margin. Today in answer to many agents who felt as "J. H. L." did, we are producing a NEW CHICAGO DEFENDER with more news, new cartoons, new features, and easier to read type. But the real news is that agents' profits on each paper are doubled. When J.H.L. heard the good news he tried again. Now he finds his customers eager to buy. He increased his order from 100 to 200 copies. His margin of profit has doubled.

Extra money comes easy if you will write THE CHICAGO DEFENDER for new agent's offer. Mention CRISIS advertisement. Don't delay! Someone may get your territory.
